

2006 Reserve Chardonnay

Columbia Gorge

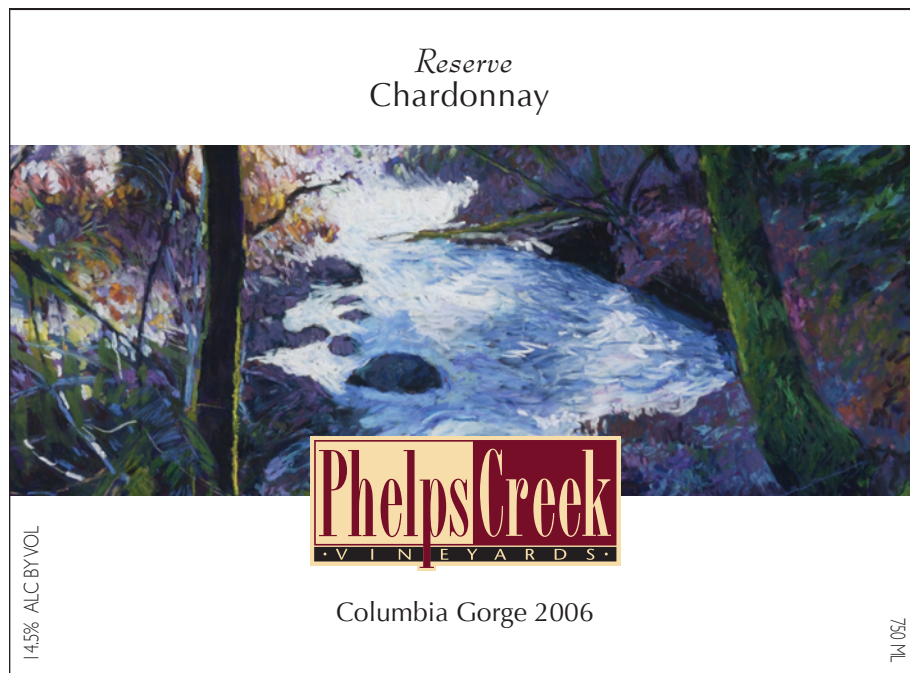

"You can practically smell the depth in this stylish chardonnay, which has almost a pale red fruit aroma, like Rainier cherries. Its ripe pear flavors possess remarkable tension and angularity, keeping the wine fresh and firm, with great length for pan-seared scallops."

~ 91 pts Wine & Spirits, April 2008

Especially lovely with rich seafood—crab cakes, coquilles St. Jacques or clam chowder.

Winemaker	Rich Cushman
Origin	Columbia Gorge AVA 100% Phelps Creek Estate Vineyard
Clones	Dijon
Harvest Date	October 6, 2006
Fermentation	Whole cluster pressed 100% barrel fermented 40% new French Oak
Bottling	May 15, 2007
Alcohol	14.5 %
Total Acidity	5.3 g/l
pH at bottling	3.41
Production	122 cases
Date released	September 2007
Price

Phelps Creek Vineyards 1850 Country Club Rd, Hood River, Oregon
541 386 2607 · www.phelpscreekvineyards.com